SC Give Participant Application Information

SC Give is the local #GIVINGTUESDAY event for the Stanwood-Camano communities. This event is hosted by the Stanwood-Camano Area Foundation.

Who Is Eligible to Apply?

Nonprofit Organizations – Any active 501(c)(3) nonprofit organization with a project in need of funding that directly benefits the community is eligible to apply. (Organization must be listed as active on the IRS exempt organization verification site, <https://apps.irs.gov/app/eos>.) Nonprofit organizations that are not 501(c)(3) will be considered if a 501(c)(3) organization acts as fiscal sponsor.

Public Agencies – Public agencies such as schools, libraries, parks, fire and police departments with an unfunded project that directly benefits the Stanwood-Camano community may apply.

Projects must meet the following criteria to be considered:

- They must directly benefit the Stanwood-Camano community (defined by the boundaries of the Stanwood-Camano School District).
- They must be realistic and attainable.
- They must have experienced project staff and/or volunteers in place who can successfully implement the project.

All applications will be reviewed by the Board of Trustees of the Stanwood-Camano Area Foundation, who will, at its sole discretion, select projects for inclusion.

SCAF's Role

SCAF provides the framework for the event as well as development & training materials for participants. Some of the things provided by SCAF include:

- Develop & maintain event website (scgive.org)
- Conduct orientation workshop
- Conduct marketing workshop
- Prepare participant planning guide
- Online donation processing
- After-event donation reports including contact information of donors for thank-you cards.

Participant's Role

To be successful, this event requires the full engagement of each and every organization that lists a project for funding. Please read the following participation requirements carefully to be sure you are willing and able to fulfill them.

- Attend an orientation session for the program that will give an overview of the mechanics of the event and how you will be expected to participate.
- Attend a marketing workshop that will help you promote the event.

- Post your project to the event Facebook page at least twice, but no more than one time per week, in the four weeks leading up to the event. (You will be provided with login information and assigned a time slot for posting your project to ensure project posts are spread out evenly.)
- Promote the event to your own donor base or constituency through your website, newsletters, e-mail, Facebook and other social media channels, or any other venue you may have available to you at least once a week in the four weeks leading up to the event.
- Use the SC Give logo and messaging provided by SCAF in promoting this event. (You will be provided with both print and web versions of the logo.)
- Include the sponsor logos whenever possible while promoting the event. (You will be provided with sponsor logos.)
- Volunteer time toward the event. Areas where participant involvement is needed to make this event successful include:
  - Pre-event activities:
    - Procure locations for, then hang and take down promotional banners.
    - Hang and remove event posters.
- Complete an after-event survey within two weeks of receipt of donor list from SCAF.
- Send donors to your project a thank-you note acknowledging their donation within two weeks of receipt of the donor list from SCAF. For online donations, do not send a donation receipt. Official donation receipts for tax-purposes will be from the Stanwood-Camano Area Foundation and generated at the time the donation is made.
